Dear MP Shah

I hope you are well.

I am writing once more to ask which blogposts of mine you referred to at the 1 November evidence session on Sharia councils. I wrote to you via email on 7 November (please see below) but have not received a response.

I would greatly appreciate your reply as I intend to address your comments with reference to the actual post(s) in question when providing further written evidence to the committee.

Thank you so much for your assistance.

Regards

Dear MP Shah

I am writing to ask which blogposts of mine you referred to at the 1 November evidence session on Sharia councils. I would like to provide further written testimony (due next week) and would very much like to address your comments with reference to the actual post(s) in question.

I would appreciate your sending me the information as soon as convenient.

Thank you so much for your assistance.
